

NEWS FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

ANNA.

July 26, 1904.
Mrs. George Gleason of Wetaug, spent Monday in Anna.
Professor J. E. Terpiatz and E. B. Turpintz and family will depart today (Tuesday) for Carbondale, where they will reside.

W. L. Robinson and son, Roy, of Logansport, Indiana, are spending a few days with Anna relatives. They visited in St. Louis a short time before coming to Anna.

Miss Elsie Brown, who has been employed at the Talk office departed Monday for Villa Ridge, where she will take a week's vacation before resuming her duties as teacher in the public schools of that place.

Among the Anna people who took advantage of the excursion to St. Louis Monday we note Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Willoughby and sons, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Stewart, Miss Madge Stokes, Mr. J. W. Hess, Mrs. T. A. Carlisle and daughter, Bessie, Miss Ethel Davis and Miss Lela Harris.

M. L. Zelnio, sign painter, has completed a very artistic sign on the front window of the postoffice.

MOUND CITY.

July 26, 1904.
On last evening Judge Henry G. Carter went up against Wm. E. Merritt, formerly of this place, now of Mounds. It seems that Merritt, once upon a time, occupied one of Carter's tenement houses. He defaulted in payment of the rent. Carter sued him, got a judgment, garnished the Illinois Central railroad, for whom Merritt was working, and made his money. Merritt still claims that Carter still owes him for making some fence posts. At Mounds on Saturday Merritt, so Carter avers, raised a racket with him on the train that was about due to come to Mound City, and made threats to "fix him," etc. If he failed to pay for the posts. So, on yesterday Carter had Merritt bound over to keep the peace for twelve months, in the sum of $100.

Hon. Charles Gaunt has secured office room from Major Daniel Hogan in the south rooms of the Enterprise building. These same south rooms now house talent galore, namely, D. Hogan, real estate agent; Charles M. Gaunt, fire insurance; Dan Hogan Jr., attorney at law, and J. F. Connell, justice of the peace and newspaper correspondent. At this mart of resources people may be married and get it in the newspapers, secure a home, have it protected from fire, lightning or tornado and at the outcome be untied from marital obligations. Consultation free. No trouble to show goods, good advice gratis. Correspondence solicited. Rates nominal.

Crip Schuler, the crippled press-feeder, has quit the Enterprise office and gone to Memphis.

BARLOW, KY.

July 24, 1904.
Crice & Wilford shipped from here about 37,000 bushels of wheat, besides there were several cars shipped by other buyers.

Messrs. Naggle & Co., will soon start a large saw mill in our town.

Miss Jessie Hudson of Doniphan, Mo., the elocutionist, failed to meet her appointment to recite at the M. E. church last night. A large crowd was on hand and all enjoyed themselves. The Ladies Aid Society was there with plenty of ice cream and cake and were kept busy until late. The ladies deserve credit for their untiring efforts and the good work they are doing.

Mrs. W. R. Crice has been sick for several days.

Miss Ida Vickers is up after a severe chill.

Mr. C. J. Barlow will soon erect a large brick store to be occupied by Mr. Black House. Mr. House will move his family here Sept. 1, and will occupy the house soon to be vacated by Mrs. Hartlung.

MOUNDS.

July 26, 1904.
Mrs. Mark Whitaker of Vienna is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Compton.

Mrs. J. W. Harding and daughter, Miss Maude and Mrs. Joe Roberts left Monday for an extended visit at the St. Louis exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKimm and son Harry left Tuesday for a pleasant sojourn among relatives in Zainsville, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Aulton of Peoria returned home Tuesday after a very pleasant visit here with Uncle J. H. Lufkins and family.

The Ladies' Aid will entertain Wednesday evening at the residence of Henry Fernsides in honor of the Congregational church. All are cordially invited to attend. A jolly time is assured.

Mrs. Frank Crain was in Mound City shopping Tuesday.

Mrs. A. F. Compton who has been ill, is convalescent.

BELKNAP.

Mr. J. H. and Miss Joyce Brown of Barlow, Ky., are the guests of their son and brother, Mr. W. P. Brown. Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Greer, a boy, July 25, 1904.

Mr. H. C. Laybourn, our county Sunday school president, attended church here Sunday evening, having been to Mt. Pisgah that day to a Sunday school convention.

An ice cream supper will be given in Evers' park Saturday evening, also a merry-go-round swing will furnish amusement for both young and old. All come out and spend an hour in harmless pastime.

The crop of wild blackberries must be excellent, inferring from the well-filled baskets of sweet, juicy fruit that come into town.

Thrashing machines are running quite lively in this locality and wheat is turning out quite a good yield.

Hay harvest is about over.
Aunt Julia West arrived last Wednesday from Friendship, where she had been visiting for some time.

GRAND CHAIN.

July 26, 1904.

Mrs. Kate Moore went to Vienna Thursday to have dental work done. Mrs. Addie Rutherford and children spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Agnes Farmer, of Friendship.

Sheriff Weaver and wife were Sunday visitors.

R. Purcell, formerly of this place but now a resident of Indianapolis, Ind., is here for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Don Evers of Belknap, is visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. Flora Mantz is visiting in Mounds and Villa Ridge.

Miss Nevada Gutman returned to Anna, Ill., Wednesday, where she has a position in the insane hospital.

Mrs. Mattie Williamson and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Creal Springs, Ill., visited Mrs. Annie Copeland here this week.

Miss Cora Victor of Friendship, was in town Saturday.

Fred Bartleson returned from a visit to Arkansas Monday.

R. B. Pope of Levings was up on business Monday.

Miss Fannie Purnell visited in Cairo Monday.

C. M. Gaunt of Mound City, was transacting business here Monday.

Dr. Tarr made a professional visit to Oaktown Monday afternoon.

John Lamar of Olmsted, water hauler for Rumsacker's threshing machine, was hurt near Echols Landing

Tuesday by the water tank turning over on him. Fortunately no bones were broken.

SAVED BY A BLIND MAN

Jumped into Creek and Rescued a 12-Year-Old Boy From Drowning.

A blind man in the role of rescuer for a drowning boy is something unusual, and if Ed Pettie, the hero, is not recommended for some of the Carnegie hero fund it will not be because he doesn't deserve it, says the Paducah Sun.

Pettie is a blind shantyboater, quite well known in Mechanicsburg. His boat is moored below the Third street bridge, just above the mouth of Island creek.

Yesterday afternoon about 1:35 o'clock Jack Finch, a 12-year-old boy, living on Broad street, was scampering along the creek branch following a dog held by a rope. Suddenly, as they skirted the bank, the dog plunged in to the creek, and pulled the boy in after him. He went in over his head, and was drowning when a woman who had seen the accident screamed and Pettie rushed out of his boat, which fortunately was near, into the water.

He instinctively followed the sounds of the boy's struggle in the creek and went to the rescue, dragging the dripping boy up after he had sunk for the last time.

B. W. Pettie, a brother of the blind man, fearing that he would also be drowned, rushed in and assisted both man and boy to the bank.

Finch, whose father is also named Jack Finch, was really drowned, and to all intents and purposes dead.

He was rolled over a water bucket on the bank until all the water was out of him and respiration returned, however, and today has fully recovered.

YOUNG FOLKS DANCED

While Raindrops Pattered Overhead—Large Crowd at St. Mary's Park.

Notwithstanding the threatening clouds and occasional July showers, a large crowd of young people were at St. Mary's park pavilion last evening to participate in the regular dance of the Tuesday Evening Dancing club, and they appeared to enjoy the dance under storm equally as well, if not more, than had the sky been clear and bright. The occasional showers did not mar the pleasure in the least and the young folks danced until a late hour.

Those who attended were: Misses Clotilde Wejact of Vincennes, Ind.;

Ida Evans of Alexandria, Va.; Norma Pettis, Blossom Kelly, Ethel Winter, Joe Winter, Inez Winter, Hattie McKnight, Annie Foster, Mabel Woodford, Lucille Ellis, Isadore Ellis, Katie McKnight, Alice Pettis, Bertha Schlosser, Eunice Taylor, Della Armstrong, Virginia Falconer, Nonie Barrow, Messrs. Marvin Boren, Elmer Brown, Robert Cantwell, Minton McHaney, Alex Weldon, Roy Cronan, George Childers, Ike LaHue, Harry Hudson, Harry Wilson, Walter Huette, Dean Stiles, Frank Thornton, Charles Wood, Henry Wood, James George, Ed Coakley, Charles Harris, Gus Kilgo.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

(Continued from Eighth Page.)

Mrs. George Hodges and daughter of Unity, are visiting Mrs. J. S. Jenkins of 2500 Sycamore street.

Mr. Robert Lewis of 406 Twenty-fifth street, returned last night from a visit with friends in Cincinnati.

BASEBALL WAS SLOW.

Emmet Edwards, a Pike county boy, was watching a baseball game the other day when a snake ran up his trousers leg. Of the incident the Pike County Post said: Of course Mr. Edwards lost all interest in the ball game at once and devoted his entire attention to entertaining his snakeship, and parties who witnessed the performance say that it was better than a trip to the World's fair and finer than a three ring circus with an elevated stage and a gallon of red lemonade thrown in for good measure. It was fun for the audience, but it was anything but a joke for Edwards.

ALL NIGHT.

Oldwed—Do you have to walk your baby at night?
Newwed—Walk it! Why my wife calls me "Old Perpetual Motion."

$4.65

CAIRO TO ST. LOUIS AND RETURN

via

Mobile & Ohio Railroad.
Tickets sold July 14th,
21st and 28th, good returning seven days from date of sale. New trains; fast time.

John M. Beall, A. G. P. A., St. Louis.

HOW TO MAKE A PINE FLOOR LOOK LIKE HARDWOOD

Do away with the dusty and dirty
Carpets and use our Floor Stain.
1601 COMMERCIAL AVENUE. LANCASTER & RICE
213 EIGHTH STREET.

INTO A LOVE FEAST.

By the Associated Press.

New York, July 26.—The Democratic clubs' reception to members of the Democratic national committee to night resolved itself into a love feast for Parker and Davis, an informal opening of the local campaign. No set speeches were made.

KRUGER'S FUNERAL.

By the Associated Press.

The Hague, July 26.—The train bearing the body of the late President Kruger arrived here today. Large crowds were at the station. The funeral was attended by representatives of the queen and the prince consort.

SAMUEL HASTINGS . . . OATS, CORN, HAY,

No. 915 Ohio Street, Telephone 228. : : : Cairo, Illinois.

WATCH FOR IT!

THE ONLY
Penny Paper

IN THE STATE OUTSIDE OF CHICAGO WITH THE SERVICE OF THE

ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Beginning

August 1,
1904.

ALL THE
Local News

MANY NEW AND INTERESTING FEATURES.

25 Cents Per Month.

Chicago 3 Ohio St.

The Evening News

Telephone 66.

Full information and details of "The Alton" is match-appointments having

"THE ON

D. BOWES, Asst. Gen'l Pass. Agt.